

Power BI

POWER BI - CREATE A CARD

Amit Thinks

Cards in Power BI

Cards in Power BI are indicators giving the values. It displays only a single value, like total sales, market share, etc. It shows a quick snapshot of key data points on a dashboard.

The card can be formatted to update the text size, color, and background to match the design of your report. Cards can be made to allow users to click on them and get more information.

